President's Post

Wanda Brewster

What a beautiful way to celebrate spring! Those of you who attended our two premier events in May – the Spring Tea and the Garden Tour – know what I am talking about. I want to thank everyone who was involved in making these events so special with particular thanks to Barbara West and the ladies who made the table decorations for “Art of the Table” at the Spring Tea. The tables were stunning! As you may know, I usually play golf on Wednesday and several of the golfers who saw the decorations made comments about how beautiful the ballroom looked. Additionally, thanks to Lindy Dee, Anna Saunders and the rest of the Garden Club who worked tirelessly to make the “Art in the Garden” tour so memorable. I got some great ideas for plants to put in my garden next year. I hope you did too! Thanks also to Mellany Gibbon and Lisa Hill for another very successful Spring Garage Sale, and to Catherine Matthews for chairing our Scholarship Committee. They reviewed 33 applications and awarded $19,000 in scholarships.

There will not be a TCWC newsletter or general meeting in July. However, we have been invited to attend the Northwest Metroport Chamber of Commerce event “Pink, Plaid and Polka Dots: Celebrating Women in Business.” You will receive an invitation in the mail from the Chamber for this breakfast meeting at the Marriott Solana on Wednesday, July 22. As TCWC is a member of the Chamber you may attend at the member price of $30. Have a wonderful summer. See you in August!

GENERAL MEETING INFORMATION

The Annual Tea was a hit – as usual! We had 85 in attendance as, Barbara West and the ladies really outdid themselves. In a note from Barbara, she says: We would like to thank the ladies who put tables together for our viewing pleasure at this year's “TEA”. Joan Flynn, assisted by Jeanne Pratt, made a memory of years gone by with a colorful maypole and matching napkins that she sewed herself. Mary Koons loves bunnies, so with help from Judy Helenburger and Iris Pellino she shared her collection with us at her table. Susie Moskal made a very colorful table with an awesome center piece covered with real cupcakes that the table guests took home in the pretty boxes she provided. Carol Cooke and her group put together a whimsical frogies and fishes table with live gold fish swimming in aqua blue waters. This was a joint effort with Sarah Miniatas, Cynthia Smith, Smokey Duverne, Linda Caldwell, and Terri Lane. As our RSVP list kept growing, Julie Morgan, together with helper Victoria Herman, put together the beautiful pink table, at the last minute. Victoria also helped Jennifer Horowitz do the chocolate bunny table with the classic desert rose dishes. Donna Green put together a spectacular table featuring delft blue china accented with red that was a visual delight. Lora Zuber, Lynda Sanders and Liz Maddox put together a Funky Monkey table that was whimsical and classic at the same time. I had fun putting together the Out of Africa table in the back corner with the tall candle sticks. Thank you all so much for the efforts you put forth in making the annual tea so much fun and SO spectacular!
